Story success criteria	Self-assess
Capital letters at the start of every sentence or for a proper noun
Full stops at the end of every sentence
Expanded noun phrase Adjectives before the noun in the sentence Prepositions and description after the noun in the sentence adverbs and adverbial phrases- (how, when where) at the start of the sentence (fronted) and within a sentence
Paragraphs Start a new paragraph when: • writing about a new place/the location in the story has changed • time has passed in the story e.g. moments, minute, hours or days • a new event has occurred in the story • a new person has been introduced • writing speech- start a new line for each new speaker in a conversation
Speech punctuation using inverted commas: • Rolf said, “How can I help you mum?” • “You need to learn to be a man,” said Trig. • “No,” said his mother. “You are too young.”
Correct size of letters
Use of joined up handwriting	